

Write down one good thing that you could do for someone in your family or class.

For example, do a chore for mum or dad without being asked.

Help them with a task or leave a note telling them you love them.

Then decorate your apron.

