

The origami paper crane is a traditional symbol of peace. Instructions on how to make them can be found with an internet search. For this activity, each family member can make a crane and transfer the words of one line from the Peace Prayer of St Francis onto the wings of the crane. Alternatively, you may like to write the names of family and friends who have served in the armed forces.

© 2011 PMRC Australia Authors: Francine & Byron Pirola. This handout is one of a series of information sheets designed to help families develop traditions that encourage faith and family life. It may be reproduced for non-commerical purposes. www.cathfamily.org

